Callow & Associates Management Consultants Presented with 2018 International Top Performer Award

Los Angeles, CA – August 30, 2018 – Today, Solver, Inc. named Callow & Associates Management Consultants Inc. as the 2018 International Top Performer Award winner. Solver honored their top partners for demonstrating significant customer impact by delivering the BI360 Suite to help customers optimize their corporate performance management processes.

Solver honored four companies for their achievements in 2018, across various partner categories both globally and regionally. Of the more than 300 partners worldwide, these partners were nominated and selected for their excellence in customer service and innovation.

“In a marketplace driven by rapid cloud and analytics trends, this year we are especially excited to announce and recognize our top-achieving partners both in the U.S. and abroad,” said Nils Rasmussen, Solver CEO. “Our amazing, global partner channel is working with us side-by-side to ensure that customers get the maximum value from BI360. On behalf of Solver’s global family, I would like to congratulate and thank our award winners for their achievements and we could not be more passionate about the joint opportunities we will work on together in the year ahead to drive our industry forward.”
